

ROUNDOUT IN GEORGIA.

—Geneva has had a Presbyterian festival.

—Forsyth received 10,513 bales of cotton last season, and expects to receive more this season.

—The Monroe Advertiser thus pithily remarks: "It is the practice of those newspapers, which are advocating the claims of Milledgeville, to assert that other journals, which favor retaining the capital in Atlanta are 'bought up,' paid in the interest of Atlanta, etc. Of course. A paper cannot favor Atlanta without being accused of being corrupted, while those editors who advocate Milledgeville are little gentlemen, nice, smart and honest, very truthful, regular little George Washingtons. Is not this strange?"

—The same paper has this: "Through the kindness of Mr. J. W. Lake, our very accommodating railroad agent, we are able to give the exact number of pounds of dried fruit shipped from Forsyth this season. The figures are taken from his books, and are therefore authenticated official. The shipments amount to three hundred and seventeen thousand four hundred and sixty-one pounds. Estimating the cost at eight cents per pound, we have the sum of $28,968 distributed mostly during the months of July and August. We challenge any town or city in Georgia to show as large shipments as we have no branch railroads at Forsyth, all this fruit was brought here in wagons and handled by our merchants and warehousemen. To the enterprise of our merchants is due this splendid business."

—In the opinion of the friends of Milledgeville, country papers can be bought for one hundred dollars apiece. This is mighty cheap, considering that the fall trade is about to open.

—Mamie, Dalton: It is impossible to remember who first invented dancin'. The cyclopedias are all too modern. Why they used to dance when Cain was a bare-footed boy. Just think of that.

—Major Charles H. Smith ("Bill Arp" of happy memory) has bought the Fountain farm in Bartow county, and will hereafter pursue the plow.

—Frank Biser, the popular chief of the Savannah fire department, was in Rome the other day.

—Mr. B. F. C. Loughridge has sold out his interest in the Dulon Enterprise to Mr. W. S. Murray. The Enterprise is one of the sprightliest and best of our exchanges, and we think Mr. Murray has made a good investment.

—The Covington Star says that "the capital question, in its last analysis, is but the greed of those who would move it."

—What has become of the Old Capital? Has it cut us off its exchange list?

—The editors of the Southern Watchman are divided on the capital question.

—Thus far, not a single newspaper in Georgia has opposed the new constitution.

—General Tombs was in the city yesterday.

—We trust the independents will give us notice as to when they propose to begin their promiscuous row.

—The Talbotton Standard is issuing a daily paper during court week. Such enterprise is commendable, and is bound to tell in the long run.

—Speaking of the Standard reminds us that the editor does want any fuss made over the capital question. This betrays a Christian spirit, but Atlanta is likely to hold her own in a racket of that kind.

—Tom Barney, of the Butts county Argus, has been sailing around Covington. Tom is a curious citizen. When his friends want to find him they surround a female college, and they are pretty apt to find him in consultation with the president.

—Joe Greer, of Forsyth, since he has got to be deputy sheriff, has discarded his seven pound amethyst ring and now has a navy revolver tied to his little finger.

—The friends of Milledgeville talk about "the halls our fathers built." They had mighty industrious ancestors if the public buildings were built by their fathers.

—An interesting incident occurred recently in Jasper county. Rev. Thos. Leverett, a minister of the Christian church, administered the rites of baptism to his father and mother on the same day.

—We learn that Col. W. A. Shorter has dissolved his connection with the Grangers life insurance company. The company has lost a good and faithful officer.

—Mr. George W. Guinn, an attaché of the Georgia railroad, died at Rutledge a few days ago, of malarial fever. He was buried at Conyers.

—The Columbus Enquirer wants Tombs elected governor by acclamation.

—Mr. Louis F. Garrard, of Columbus, is favorably spoken of as a member of the legislature from Muscogee county. It is to be hoped that the voters of that county will also find it convenient to send up the Widow Badett. She is a genial old soul.

—DOWN IN DIXIE.

—Gleanings from Our Southern Mail.

—C. B. Bestor is the new mayor of Mobile.

—Recent rains have ended the long drouth in western Texas.

—The democrats and workmen of Nashville put together in the mayor race.

—The Dallas Commercial estimates the wheat crop of Texas this year at 7,500,000 bushels.

—In several counties of Alabama the democrats have brought out colored men for the legislature.

—H. V. Redfield is writing up the troubles in the Shenandoah, coal region for the Philadelphia Times.

—Gov. Hubbard and Hon. John H. Reagan are mentioned as probable candidates for the next governor of Texas.

—The Whig says there is not a dollar in the state treasury of Virginia, and the banks are not disposed to advance any funds.

—The industrial convention of Alabama, at Bloomfield Springs, adjourned Tuesday, after a largely attended and very successful meeting.

—Three Tatum brothers, new-comers, rented twelve acres of ground in McLendon county, Texas, for $5 an acre and sold $3,000 worth of watermelons.

—Professor Charles A. Graves, of the Washington and Lee law school, and Miss Lizzie, daughter of Dr. J. L. Patrick, a professor in the same university, were married 28th ult.

—When a horse runs off with a couple of Texas lovers, instead of spasmodically seizing the reins, she throws her arms around his neck, and he tries to stop the horse by plying the whip.

—Gilbert Ran foully murdered another negro in Union county, Miss., 17th of August. He was arrested the following Monday, and on last Tuesday sentenced to be hung October 19th.

—Over one hundred convicts are at work on Colonel Enock Easley's farm in west Tennessee. There is also a large number at work on General Forrest's farm near Memphis.

—The adjutant-general reports that there are now organized in the state of Texas thirty-one militia companies. Major Jones' battalion, consisting of five companies, and Lieutenant Hall's command.

—Sam Bard would have the New York Sun know that the Pensacola Herald is not "a Hayes organ," but an independent democratic paper. Says the irate Samuel, "Dana is simply a demented old villain and political flea, whose bite is harmless."

—Victoria (Texas) Advocate: A contract was closed in this city yesterday for the delivery of 10,000 head of male beef stock, one and two-year-olds, for six and eight dollars per head.

—Two young men, named Joseph E. Johnston and F. H. Lee, are learning the machine trade in the Pennsylvania railroad machine shops at Altoona. They are nephews of the Confederate officers of that name.

—Mrs. Louisa Lawson was sentenced a few days ago to be hanged October 30, for the murder of her husband in Rockingham county, Va., March 15, 1875. The address of the judge was so pathetic that the prisoner alone seemed unaffected.

—Petersburg Index: The Rev. F. H. Kerfoot, a native of Virginia, but now in charge of a church in Midway, has been unanimously chosen pastor of the Eastern Place Baptist church, to succeed the eminent and much lamented Rev. Richard Fuller, who for so many years resided and labored in Baltimore.

—R. W. Moore, Lyletton Cooke and Boyd Winchester, prominent citizens of Louisville, who were placed on the committee of reception on the occasion of the visit of President Hayes to that city, publish cards in the Courier-Journal declining to serve on said committee.

—Now that he is down again they all kick him. The Memphis Avalanche says: "We are ready to believe that Bob Crawford represented himself to Wick-lick as Osman Pasha, and to that Chicago man as Osman Bey. But if Robert is correctly biographical in his reports, his abilities in square-toed lying are exceeded only by a gentleman whom it is impolite to name."

—The editor of the Star-Vindicator, published at McAlister, Choctaw Nation, after attending the meeting of the grand lodge of the Indian Territory at Vintha, enthusiastically remarks: "Chahita okia nan isht im at asha yvt Apehitchi itayinka a tuchina ho itek-kashke-washke, mikka itlv apeliichi ayidai ho nan isht asha yvt i nutaka kvt yakolmi kashke."

—Miss Emma S. Taber, who has been teaching school at the south for the past seven years, and has recently visiting in Fairhaven, has purchased 100 acres government land near Orange City, Fla., and will enter upon the culture of oranges. If a woman can hire men and oversee their work as well as a man, every one will be glad to have her do it, and will wish her large profits.

—A Hartford, Ky., dispatch of the 9th says: Yesterday evening a negro man threw a stone at Col. John Engleman, an old and respected citizen of this county, and hit him on the head, fracturing the skull, and died in a few hours. Officers are in pursuit of the cowardly r. f. and criminal, and short work would be made of him if Col. Engleman's sons and relatives should get hold of him.

—Captain McNelly, the gallant commander of the little squad of mounted men that have done so much toward the suppression of crime in Texas, died from consumption, near Burton, in that state, on the 4th. The Galveston News says of him: Able, gallant, faithful in all his enterprises against the enemies of a young and struggling society and civilization, long with his name be remembered and cherished with affection by thousands of beneficiaries of his skill and bravery, and by all Texans who desire the well-being and development of the State.

Being strongly Anti-Bilious, they expel all humors, correct a vitiated state of the system, and being purely vegetable, they do not, like other pills, leave the stomach, and bowels in a worse condition than they found them, but, on the contrary, impart a healthy tone and vigor before upturn.

OUR WORDS INDORSED

Dr. C. L. MITCHELL, Ft. Meade, Fla., says: "I know the superiority of your pills, and I can assure you that I have used them with the most successful results in my practice."
